

One thing I love about Leicester...

...is the Lanes. Shopping is my guilty pleasure. I find just wandering around the shops very relaxing and I'm a sucker for a good bargain. I've been in Leicester since 1996 and the transformation has been amazing. We used to eat at the same few places every night after training, these days there's so much choice I'm glad I'm not on a strict diet anymore.

Austin Healey
Former Leicester Tigers
and England Rugby Player