

One thing I love about Leicester...

...is simple. Coming home. I've played in tennis tournaments all over the world, won 68 International career titles, been the British number one and ranked in the top ten in the world in Wheelchair Tennis. It's because of this I've been lucky enough to travel and see some amazing sights but nothing will ever beat coming home to Leicester.

Jayant

Jayant Mistry
Inclusive Sports Development Officer