

One thing I love about Leicester...

...is just how welcoming and multi-cultural the city is. It's just a really friendly place and being brought up and learning my trade here makes me proud to be part of it. I enjoy coming back and supporting the New Parks Boys Club, as this is where it all started for me. I can't imagine leaving Leicester – it's where I call home.

Mark Selby
Professional Snooker Player