

The five-finger test For right-fit books

Open the book to the middle and ask your child to read out loud. Raise one finger for each unknown or misread word and say...

1 Finger

You knew all but one word. This book will be too easy for you.

2 Fingers

You knew all but two words. This book will be just right for you.

3 Fingers

You knew all but three words. This book may frustrate you, but you might still enjoy it.

4 Fingers

You knew all but four words. This book may be very challenging; you might want to choose a different book.

5 Fingers

This book is too hard to be fun. Time to look for another book you can enjoy reading by yourself, or would you like me to read it with you?
