

Post 16 IAG services for schools and colleges

Careers support to identified students

A full guidance interview to discuss options and career plans. To include an Action Plan and follow up for those requiring additional careers support.

Support for vulnerable students to ensure retention

Support for identified vulnerable students that includes one intervention per term to promote engagement and prevent drop out.

Employability advice workshops

Advice workshops covering CVs, interview techniques, online applications and other application forms. Maximum of 20 students.

Applying to HE workshops

Workshops devised to help your students make the best of themselves in completing their personal statement or HE exploration to support them to make informed choices. Maximum of 20 students.

Attendance at your careers fair or open evening

Adviser input to your event to give information and advice.

Post 16 IAG services for schools and colleges

Tracking students who drop out of courses

Tracking of all early leavers and provision of destination information.

Mailshot to Year 11 students

Flyer or leaflet mailshot to market your opportunities, up to 1,500 sent to prospective students in Year 11.

Morrisby profiling

Psychometric assessment with individual report and feedback on student abilities, work styles, talents and interests, with career recommendations.

INSET

Individually tailored careers information sessions to develop your staff.