Dear Mr Fitzgerald,

Thank you for submitting a revised Domestic Homicide Review report and executive summary ('Rabia') following the Quality Assurance Panel's feedback.

The Panel was grateful to you for carefully considering the issues they raised in their letter of 9 February 2018. The Panel was especially grateful for your covering letter to Christian Papaleontiou (who has since moved to a new role) which they found helpful in setting out the amendments that were made to the report. The Panel also noted the important additional information you kindly provided in relation to some of the other observations they made.

The Panel has carefully examined the revised report and is satisfied that all matters have now been addressed. The Panel is content for the report to be published and notes that further redactions may be necessary before publication in order to ensure the identity of individuals is not compromised. It would be helpful if you could provide us with the URL to the report when available online by emailing us at: DHREnquiries@homeoffice.gov.uk.

On behalf of the Panel, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and other colleagues for the considerable work that you have put into this particular review.

Yours sincerely

Charlotte Hickman
Chair of the Home Office DHR Quality Assurance Panel
